

The 15th Annual Parkinson's Disease Symposium for Patients, Caregivers, and Healthcare Providers

At the North Central Baptist Church: 8001 Northwest 23rd Avenue Gainesville, FL

April 8th, 2017

8:00-9:00	Registration in the Lobby	Feel free to look at the informational tables.	Coffee, tea and light breakfast available until 10:00
9:00-9:10	Welcome: Dr. Irene Malaty Director of National Parkinson Foundation Center of Excellence at UF Director of Sponsored Research at UF CMDNR - in Main sanctuary
	Sing for Life
9:15-10:10	Stockdale* Guest Speaker: Rubén Martínez-Hernández, MD Supplements, Vitamins, and other Drugs (including Marijuana) in Parkinson's disease: Are they for real?
	Dance for Life
10:15-10:40	Hot Topic: Cate Price, PhD. Cognition and Elective Surgeries
	Exercise/Champions' Boxing/Rocksteady Boxing
10:50-11:00	Break- water and drinks available
	Parkinson's 101- Large Classroom	Experienced People with Parkinson's - Main Sanctuary
11:00-11:40	Heather Simpson, OT Hot topics of Occupational Therapy (sleep, anxiety....)	Chauncey Spears, MD Mood and Psychosis
11:45-12:25	Addie Patterson, MD Medicines and Lifestyles; (choices, timing)	Adolfo Ramirez, MD Surgical Therapies
12:15-1:30	Please return to the Main Ballroom
	LUNCH- if you RSVP'd a special dietary lunch, please see Amanda Fessenden.
	Art in Medicine
	Ask the doctor... Live!: Please write down your question and someone will come by and collect it.

*The Robert B. Stockdale Movement Disorder Lecture Fund, established in 2010, to support movement disorder research at the UF College of Medicine. Donations to this fund, supporting this annual Symposium and other educational PD events can be made by contacting Stephen Figueroa at 352-273-5882 or sfig@ufl.edu.

