

23RD ANNUAL PARKINSON EDUCATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

The event will be held on:

Saturday March 29, 2025

9 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Doors open at 8 a.m.

8001 NW 23rd Ave, Gainesville

About us

FREE educational day open to the public. It is a great way to update your knowledge of Parkinson's Disease and meet people who are fighting for a cure. Free lunch included for in-person attendees.

TOPICS will include

- What is new in PD
- Focused ultrasound
- Biomarkers
- Making the most of clinic visits
- Non-motor symptoms

For more information and to register, contact Amanda Fessenden

In-person & Online

RSVP NOW

Headlining Guest Speaker

Ray Dorsey, MD

Professor of Neurology,
Director of the Center for Health +
Technology at University of Rochester, NY
Author of Ending Parkinson's Disease
and The Parkinson's Plan

For the past decade, he has used telemedicine to improve care for individuals with Parkinson's disease. His research has been published in the leading neurology, medical, and economic journals. He has also been featured on NPR, the Wall Street Journal, and New York Times.

amanda.fessenden@neurology.ufl.edu
352.733.2431

